

Confident Security

Psalm 125

VOICES OF FAITH

Confidence in a Faithful God

ADONIRAM JUDSON

“The future is as bright as the promises of God.”

HUDSON TAYLOR

“The branch of the vine does not worry...it rests in the vine.”

JOHN PATON

“Without that abiding consciousness of the presence and power of my dear Lord...I must have gone mad.”

THEME

Confident Security

THEME

Faithfulness is possible for ordinary believers, because we are held by an extraordinary God.

CENTRAL TRUTH

Those who trust in the Lord are secure because the Lord establishes, surrounds, preserves, favors, and gives peace to His people.

MAIN POINT 1

We Are Secure in His Protection

*“Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but abides forever.”*

To trust the Lord is to hang the full weight of your life upon Him.

Your security does not rest on the strength of your grip on God, but on the strength of the One who is holding you.

A decorative silhouette of a mountain range with several peaks of varying heights, rendered in a dark blue color, spanning the bottom of the slide.

MAIN POINT 2

We Are Secure in His Presence

*“As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
so the LORD surrounds his people,
from this time forth and forevermore.”*

“Whatever surrounds you is literally surrounded by God.”

The deepest reality of the Christian life is not isolation — but presence.

A decorative graphic at the bottom of the slide consisting of a series of overlapping, stylized mountain peaks in various shades of beige and light brown, creating a layered, geometric landscape effect.

We Are Secure Through the Pressure

“For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land allotted to the righteous...”

It may rise, but it will not remain.

Do not allow the wickedness around you to produce wickedness within you.

*“Afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair;
persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed.” — 2 Corinthians 4:8–9*

We Are Secure in the Goodness of Our Father

*“Do good, O LORD, to those who are good,
and to those who are upright in their hearts!”*

God is always favorably disposed toward His children.

“If God is for us, who can be against us?” — Romans 8:31

Prayer says: “Father, I cannot control this, but I know You can.”

We Can Rest Because God Has the Last Word

*“But those who turn aside to their crooked ways
the LORD will lead away with evildoers!
Peace be upon Israel!”*

Security produces peace.

Biblical peace is not the absence of storms.
It is the settled confidence that the storm cannot separate us from God.

A decorative silhouette of a mountain range with several peaks of varying heights, rendered in a dark blue color, spanning the width of the slide at the bottom.

RESPONSE

What Are You Resting Your Weight On?

Are you trusting Him?

Are you leaning the full weight of your life upon Him?
Or are you building your security upon something that can be moved?

“Only God can handle the full weight of your life.”

A decorative silhouette of a mountain range with several peaks of varying heights, rendered in a dark blue color, spanning the width of the slide at the bottom.

CONCLUSION

Rest, Because Your Father Is Faithful

*“Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion,
which cannot be moved, but abides forever.
As the mountains surround Jerusalem,
so the LORD surrounds his people...”*

Your Father is not asleep.
He has not lost control.
He has not taken His hands off your life.

Peace be upon the people of God.

A decorative graphic at the bottom of the slide consisting of several overlapping, stylized mountain peaks in shades of light gray and beige, creating a layered, geometric landscape effect.