Do You Love

GOD?

2 Corinthians 5: 14-21

If you love God, two things will be true:

You will have a passion that leads to Christ's control (vv. 14 17), and you will have a passion for the lost (vv. 18 21).

Do You Love
GOD?

A heart-shaped rock, light-colored and textured, sits among a field of dark, jagged, and rough stones. The background is a dense collection of these dark stones, creating a textured, natural setting.

A Passion that Leads to Christ's Control

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

- Christ died so that we would no longer live for ourselves but for Christ (1 Corinthians 6:20).
- Does the love of Christ constrain you? Do you love God this morning as much as you ever have?

A Passion for the Lost

2 Corinthians 5:17-21

- How much does God love the lost?
John 3:16
- The only thing worse than being lost is being lost and having no one out looking for you.
