What Does God Actually Want from Me?

Micah 6:6-8

The background of the slide is a technical drawing, likely a blueprint of a mechanical part, featuring various cross-sections, dimensions, and circular patterns. The drawing is rendered in a light gray color, providing a technical and architectural context for the text.

Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? (Micah 6:6)

What do I give to God?

What worship does He want from us?

An orange starburst graphic, resembling a stylized sun or a star, is positioned to the left of the text.

What Does God Actually Want from Me?

The background of the slide is a technical drawing, likely a mechanical or architectural blueprint. It features various cross-sections, circular views, and dimension lines with numerical values. The drawing is rendered in a light gray or sepia tone, providing a textured, industrial feel to the slide.

Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
(Micah 6:7)

Do these things pay God back for my sins?

A bright orange, multi-pointed starburst or sunburst graphic, located in the bottom left corner of the slide. It has a jagged, radiating edge.

What Does God Actually Want from Me?

He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? (Micah 6:8)
